SENATE MAJORITY WITH PRESIDENT

Poll Shows Margin of 15 Votes For Passage Repeal Measure.

9 DEMOCRATS OPPOSE.

Administration Will Insist on Action And Will Not Brook Delay Tactics When Matter Comes Up.

Washington, April 2.—A poll of the Senate by an administration leader disclosed that 13 Republicans may be expected to vote for the Sims bill repealing the tolls provision of the Panama Canal act. Nine democrats are counted as against the measure, although three of thes eventually may support the administration. The poll gives the Sims bill 55 of the 95 votes in the Senate, or a margin of 15 for passage.

These Republicans are listed for the bill: Brandegee, Burton, Dillingham, Fall, Gronna, Lodge, McCumber, Nelson, Norris, Root, Sherman, Stephenson and Weeks.

These Democrats are counted against the President: Ashurst, Chamberlain, Martine, O'Gorman, Pittman, Ransdell, Shields, Vardman and Walsh.

Progressives: Poindexter.

Senators Ashurst, Pittman and Shields are classed as doubtful, but their inclination is against the repeal.

Senator O'Gorman, chairman of the committee, who is marshalling the anti-administration forces, announced definitely that he would call a meeting for next Thursday. Until that time no formal consideration of the repeal measure, or proposed amendments, can develop. Although friends of the President had hoped to have the canals committee meet earlier, they decided to make no effort to induce Senator O'Gorman to change his plans. They will insist, however, upon action within reasonable time after the committee gets down to work.

Senator Owen, of Oklahoma, the majority member who will lead the fight in committee for the administration, visited the White House early in the day and conferred with the President. Later he made the emphatic declaration that friends of the repeal bill would not submit to unnecessary delay in preliminary consideration of the bill, and flatly declared that the gauntlet of committee discharge would be hurled should an attempt be made to impede the progress of the measure.

That some members, who oppose exemption repeal, desire to have public hearing on the bill was apparent late today, but administration senators insisted that such hearings were entirely unnecessary and that there could be no other reason for them except deliberately to cause delay.

"Public hearings on this issue are unnecessary," said Senator Owen, "and would unnecesasrily prolong this controversy, which is a clean-cut issue and thoroughly understood by every Senator. We are eptitled to get away from Congress early this time, and intend to do so if possible."

NAB MURDERING BANDIT.

As Tattooed Slayer Naps, Marshal And Posse Take Him.

Bellingham, Wash., April 2.—Chas. Hopkins, known as the tattooed bandit, was surprised and arrested, early yesterday at Van Horn, on the Upper Skagit River by Marshal Joseph Glover, of Concrete, and a posse of citizens. He was asleep when caught.

Hopkins killed Anton Olsen and seriously wounded John Freeman, at McMurray, last Saturday night, because they had only a few cents to give him when he held them up. He was arrested by a policeman in Everett, last week, but seized a pistol from his captor's pocket and wounded him and two citizens who interfered.

He is charged with the murder of Charles Hedges in a Seattle lodging house in January, and with other murders in various districts of the Northwest.

The Cardinals will have a special meeting at the home of President Sylvester A. Breen, 1322 King street, next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at which time everything pertaining to the coming contest in Washington will be arranged. NEW HEARING FOR SUIT.

Attorneys For Mrs. Emma L. Rice Get Leave to File Amended Declaration.

Richmond, Va., April 2.—An amended declaration, which will bring the case under the terms of the Federal employers' liability act, was filed in the law and esquity court yesterday in the case of Emma L. Rice against the Southern Railway Company. The case has been in court for nearly three years. James C. Rice, an engineer, employed by the Southern Railway Company on a yard engine, was fatally injured on December 31, 1910, when his engine jumped the track and turned over in the local yards near Fourteenth street. Rice died in a hospital on January 6, 1911. His widow claimed that the track and yards were defective, that the ties were rotten, that the engine turned over without any fault on the part of her husband. The case was tried in the Law and Equity Court, where Mrs. Rice was given a verdict in the sum of $10,000, the maximum amount. The railroad appealed to the Supreme Court, where the lower court was reversed on the instruction given by the trial judge, and the case was sent back for a new trial A motion for a rehearing before the Supreme Court on the order remanding the case for a new trial was recently denied.

Attorney Hunsdon Cary representing Mrs Rice, appeared yesterday before Judge Ernest H. Wells, sitting in the Law and Equity Court for Judge Beverly T Crump, and asked leave to file an amended declaration bringing the case under the terms of the Federal employers' liability act. Attorneys for the company objected to the filing of an amended declaration, and asked that it be refused by the court. Judge Wells overruled the objection and permitted the declaration to be filed. The railway company was given leave to file bills of exception.

REBEL HORDES STILL HELD UP

Torreon Defenders Said to be in Bad Plight From Siege.

FEDERALS AT BAY.

Besiegers Reported to Have Been Subjected to Rain of Bullets From Federals in Adobe Buildings.

Juarez, April 2.—Torreon is already virtually in the possession of Gen. Francisco Villa's constitutionalist force, but Villa will not "officially announce" his victory until he is in absolute undisturbed control.

This was the statement made here today by a high official of the constitutionalist government. He declares he has proof al lexcept two small remnants of the federal garrison of Gen. Refugio Valesco, once numbering more than 8,000, had been dispersed.

This official refused to divulge Villa's reasons for failing to claim the city, but indicated that he was withholding the news in order to carry out a coup which would result in the capture of the federal re-inforcements rushing toward Torreon, and possibly in the capture of Monterey and Saltillo.

General Venustiano Carranza and his cabinet had a two-hour talk by wire last night with General Villa. Later Carranza's chief of staff gave out the substance of this conversation, declaring Villa had "unofficially" reported that a remnant of the federal army was offering "an unexpected defense."

The separate fights were raging, the report said, one in a fortified adobe structure on the southwestern edge of Torreon, and the other in the Canyon de Huarache.

Villa explained to Carranza that the the Canyon de Huarache is the outermost line of original defense of the city, being located a few miles southward. Three mountains close together, one of them Cerro de la Cruz, form this canyon, which has been strongly fortified. The federals intrenched there are believed to be the principal remnant of the defenders.

Fighting has been desperate in the extreme, Villa reported, and losses on both sides have been heavy. In attacking the rebels are constantly exposed to a merciless fire from the protected federals, Villa said.

General Carranza was informed that Villa hoped to sweep away these defenses today. Villa reported, so far as he could learn, no federal re-inforcements are close to Torreon. In order to prevent such a movement, however, his troops have cut the railroad line south of Saltillo, and have also interrupted railroad service by which federal soldiers could be brought up from Aguas Calientes.

Carranza's conference with Villa was most unusual, in that Carranza and his lieutenants took complete possession of the main telegraph office here, closed it to all outsiders for two hours. Even the operators, except Carranza's private telegrapher, were barred from the building.

ENTERTAINMENT TONIGHT.

High School Players to Present "Everystudent" and "The Princess."

Everyone in Alexandria should come to see the High School Players tonight in "Everystudent" and "The Princess." This is the first production of the High School, and promises to be one of the best amateur productions ever put forth in this city. The pupils, who will take part in the play have been drilled, rehearsed, and coached for a month, and everyone has their lines well in hand. About five hundred tickets have been sold, and there are not many more left, so those who wish to see the play on either night had better hustle to get tickets. They can be secured at Allen's drug store, and also from any High School pupil. Those who do not get into the hall before eight o'clock can be safely assured they will not get a seat. "Everystudent," comes first at promptly 8:15 and all spectators are sincerely requested to be in their seats before the rise of the curtain.

The time of the two plays is two and a half hours, "Everystudent" taking up one hour, and "The Princess" one and a half. "Everystudent" is all in one act, and portrays the adventures, opportunities, setbacks, encouragements, and discouragements of Everystudent, how he finally seeks out and wins Truth, who brings other aides to him, and succeeds in making his triumph over Bluff and Cheat. In "The Princess" three young men, the Prince, and his two followers, Florien and Cyril, in woman's garb go down into a Southern court to seek out the Princess Ida for the Prince. No man is allowed in her court, and the troubles of the Prince and his friends is made the more severe, but in the end the young Prince wins over the haughty Princess, and Lady Blanche the one who influences the Princess in her hatred of men, is banished from the court. The drills and songs comprising the "Poetry of Motion" by the chorus in this play is especially good. Dont miss this glorious opportunity to see what your High School is capable of putting forth tonight and tomorrow night at 8:15.

MYSTERY IN TRIPLE MURDER.

Officers and Coroner's Jury Unable to Find Definite Clue.

Clinton, Tenn., April 2.—Mystery surrounds the killing near here yesterday of three members of the Seivers family. Millard Seivers was shot through the back of the head at his home, three miles from this city, and a short time later, 3 miles away, the bodies of his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sievers, were found lying in the dining room of their home.

Officers who spent the day investigating the tragedy could discover no definite clue. The coroner's jury likewise could get nothing on which to render a verdict placing the blame.

Millard Sevier's wife told the officers that she was awakened early today by a revolver shot, and that she investigated and found the body of her husband lying on the floor with blood flowing from a bullet hole in the back of his head. His revolver was beneath him.

Mrs. Sievers swooned, she said, and does not know how long she remained unconscious On recovering she summoned help and sent a messenger to the home of her husband's parents.

Unable to arouse any one at the home of the elder Seivers, the messenger investigated and found the bodies of the aged man and his wife.

Both of the Seivers were prosperous farmers. The elder Seivers was 65 years of age and the son 35.

Frederick, Md., April 2.—Alleged to have been set on fire by Roger Eusaw, 5 years old, Louise Decraft, aged 14, of Brunswick, is now at the Frederick City Hospital, terribly burned on the back, arms, face and limbs. The two children were in the kitchen of the Decraft home alone and it is said the boy found some matches and lighted the little girl's dress. The child screamed, but before aid came she was enveloped in flames, most all of her clothing being burned from her body.

PACIFIC SPIRIT IN ULSTER AFFAIRS

Marked Contrast to Storm And Stress Apparent Week Ago.

ASQUITH PLAYS PART.

Feeling in Parliament For Settlement on Federal Basis is Gaining Ground All The Time

London, April 2.—A remarkably pacific spirit has come over the political situation in strange contrast to the storm and stress of a week ago. It is almost certain that Mr. Asquith will be returned to Parliament unopposed. The feeling for a settlement on a Federal basis is gaining ground.

Arthur J. Balfour spoke today, and Sir Edward Carson and Andrew Bonar Law on Monday when the division on the home rule bill will be taken on the second reading.

Mr. Asquith has appointed General Sir Charles Douglass, now inspector general of the home forces, to succeed Field Marshal Sir John French as chief of staff.

The first act of Premier Asquith in his new capacity as secretary for war, was to clear up the mystery surrounding the influence given by the War Office to Sir Arthur Paget, commander-in-chief in Ireland.

Sir Arthur was summoned to London to give his chief a personal account of the orders he had received and issued, and, as a result of the conference, Reginald McKenna, the home secretary, who is acting as leader of the House, was able to inform the Commons today that:

"The only question General Paget put or intended to put, to the commanding officer in Ireland was whether they were ready to put their duty before any other consideration. It was not his intention that this or any other such questoon should be put by the general officers to their subordinates.

There certainly was a home rule debate in the House of Commons yesterday, but it almost passed unnoticed. Very few members stayed to listen. The great majority preferred discussion of the question of federalism, which, as offering a basis for peaceful solution of the Irish problem, is the sole subject of conversation at the present moment. Tonight Ex-Premier Balfour will devote a speech to it, while Sir Edward Carson is to make a pronouncement on the same subject next Monday.

Unionist members yesterday stated that they were ready to accept the exclusion of Ulster or the larger portion thereof until the federal system should be applied to the entire United Kingdom.

GOVERNOR SUSTAINED.

Hatfield's Acts Not Subject to Review or Control of Courts.

Charlestown, W. Va. April 2.—That the office of governor of West Virginia in political and the discretion vested in the chief executive by the state constitution and laws respecting his official duties is not subject to review or control by courts, was the decision of the supreme court of appeals Tuesday evening in the case of Hatfield against Graham, in which a writ of prohibition was awarded, prohibiting Judge John T. Graham, from proceeding further in the suit for $15,000 damages against Governor Hatfield and four officers of the West Virginia National Guard.

When martial law was in force on Paint Creek, the Socialist Labor Star, opposed the policy of the state administration. Officers of the National Guard raided the plant, arrested the editors and confiscated copy for an edition. The publishers entered suit for damages and the contention was made in supreme court that the courts of Cabell county had no jurisdiction.

The court held further that a subordinate military officer is not rendered personally liable for injury to private property from executing a lawful order issued by the governor as commander-in-chief of the military forces.

It turned out, however, that John Hatfield is wanted by Sheriff Hatfield and Henry D. Hatfield, not for shooting up the gap, but for obstructing a freight train. The obstruction, it apears, took the shape of a pile of wooden ties laid across the railway track. The requisition was honored by Governor Stuart, and the captive Hatfield will start back to West Virginia today.

His condition this morning was considered critical. Sorrell was arraigned in Police Court today and held to await the result of Littlejohn's injury.

DECLARED SANE BY COURT.

Newcastle Man Must Stand Trial for the Murder of Sergeant Martin.

Roanoke, Va., April 2.—Harvey D. Looney, charged with the murder in July 192, of Sergeant O. M. Martin, of Newcastle, was placed on trial for murder at the Craig county seat yesterday. Looney was convicted in the fall of 1912 and sentenced to die in the electric chair. A short time before the time fixed for the execution the Supreme Court of Appeals granted a writ of error in his case and he was sent back to Craig for a new trial.

When again arraigned counsel for the prisoner entered a plea of insanity, and Judge Anderson ordered a commission to examine into his mental condition. This commission reported Looney sane. Further, to make sure on the point of insanity, however, Judge Anderson ordered Looney confined in the Southwestern State Hospital for a period sufficient to allow experts to judge as to his sanity.

WOMEN LOCKED IN CHURCH.

They Escape Through Window and Down Ladder.

Norfolk, Va., April 2.—Twenty-six women, members of a church society, were compelled to make their exit from the Berkeley Memorial Methodist Church Tuesday night through a window and then descend a ladder.

The janitor, believing the church was empty, locked it up and went home. When the women's meeting was over they found they could not get out. They raised a window and called for assistance. A neighbor brought a ladder and they descended one at a time. A crowd soon collected and the women were subjected to jeers and cheers. Some of them preferred to remain in the church rather than face the crowd. A policeman scattered the onlookers until the womeen had escaped.

RICHMOND "SELL."

"Whale" Placed on Exhibition in Capital City.

Richmond, Va., April 2.—With the assistance of the city tug and a number of sailors belonging to ships in the harbor, armed with boat hooks, the whale, which created so much commotion in the harbor Tuesday afternoon, was finally driven into the canl lock and the gates closed on it.

While not regarded by experts as being of the largest size, the huge cetacean, as he sulked against the lower gates, left little room for anything else in that part of the lock.

Some of Fulton's enterprising watermen it was announced would drive the whale up the end of the dock at the foot of Seventeenth St., yesterday where they expected to put it on exhibition for a small fee.

The whale spent Tuesday night quietly in the lock. It is supposed to be the same fish which sunk a small sloop at Newport News three days ago and then disappeared.

It is a peculiar coincidence that the whale got here on the last day of March.

BOY MARRIES AGED WIDOW.

Gray-Haired Woman And Youth Married by a Magistrate.

Bristol, Va., April 2.—Leaning upon the arm of John Ashby, an 18-year-old boy, Mrs. Lettie Lovell, 68 years old, and distinctly gray-haired, called at the home of Magistrate J. W. Keys in Greene county, Tenn., Tuesday, and requested that he join her in marriage with young Ashby. Keys thought it only a joke, nad was convicted of the sincerity of the couple only when a marriage license was produced by the boy, who blushingly admitted that he and Mrs. Lovell were undoubtedly victims of Cupid.

After the ceremony, Ashby and his bride went to the home of the latter, where they are spending their honeymoon.

W. M. CARTER ACQUITTED.

He Killed Man Who Was Attempting to Burn His Home.

Petersburg, Va., Apjril 2.—The trial of "Dr." W. M. Carter for the alleged shooting and killing of Dr. H. H. Cox, last fall, which has occupied the attention of the Hustings Court here for two days, was concluded late yesterday evening. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty and the accused was discharged.

Carter took the stand in his own defense yesterday. He said he shot Cox because the latter was attempting to burn his house. Carter thanked the jury for their verdict and on leaving the court room was congratulated by a crowd of friends. Carter's wife became violently insane a few days ago and is now in the Central State Hospital.

Pensions for widows and minor children of the officers and men who served in the Spanish war, the Philippine insurrection, and the Boxer uprising in China would be authorized by a bill which passed the House yesterday by a vote of 276 to 54. The bill now goes to the Senate. The bill would grant $12 monthly to the widow of an honorably discharged soldier or sailor and $2 monthly for each child under 16 years of age, provided that the widow shall have married the soldier prior to the passage of the bill. The pensions are to be limited, however, to widows without means of support other than their daily labor and an actual net nicome not exceeding $250 a year.

Man Loses Life by Going Backward in Staunton.

Staunton, Va., April 2.—In a collision which occurred here between a westbound Chesapeake and Ohio freight train and the yard engine, the engineer of the latter, J. M. Fielder, who went on duty yesterday morning, was instantly killed, his head being crushed and one foot cut off.

The fireman, F. R. Bright, jumped and was uninjured. The freight, with C. A. Lambert as engineer and R. L. Kesler, fireman, was to get water here and meet the fast eastbound train at the next station west of here.

The yard engine had been flagged no to go on the main track, but Fielder thought he had time to back and get on the siding.

A. Williams, appointed by Postmaster General Burleson from civil service. Mr. Williams bore the indorsement of Representative E. E. Holland, of the Second Virginia district.

ANOTHER CITY WANTS STREET SIGNS.

At a joint meeting of the Retail Merchants' association and the chamber of commerce of Roaoke, it was brought out that a great deal of confusion is caused by the fact of almost every street and avenue in Roanoke has a name and also a number. The absence of street signs was discussed. The city officials some time ago, ordained that avenues should be known by names, and streets by numbers. This change however, has only served to make the street locations of Roanoke more intricate to the majority of people. It is now intended to remedy this state of affairs and the joint meeting adopted a resolution calling upon the joint city finance committee which meets Friday night to urge the latter committee to appropriate funds needed for street signs as soon as possible.

Spasmodic movements towards placing signs on the streets of Alexandria have been made at times during the past third of a century. In ante bellum days names of streets appeared on houses at street corners, but during many years this city has been minus this great convenience. It is a fact that some persons born and reared in Alexandria were they placed in certain sections of the city (especially north, northeast and northwest where many house have been built in recent times) they would be unable to name thoroughfares upon which they might be standing.

The elimination of signs from street corners in Alexandria is easily explained. Houses which occupied corners in bygone days, when signs were in evidence have been razed and others erected on their sites.

Strangers always get adrift when they come here and attempt to find certain streets. King street, like "the street which is called straight" in Damascus, is about the only thoroughfare familiar to occasional visitors.

PANIC FOLLOWS SHOOTING.

Postmaster of Brunswick, Tenn., Killed While at Theatrical Performance.

Brunswick, Tenn., April 2.—W. D. Rittenhouse, merchant and postmaster, was shot and killed and several hundred persons were thrown into confusion when a man, said to be A. B. Curtis, a sawmill worker, rushed into a tent in which a theatrical performance was being given here tonight and opened fire on Rittenhouse. In the excitement the man escaped. No others in the audience were hurt.

Posses are searching for Curtis. It it said Rittenhouse and Curtis engaged in a dispute several days ago with reference to the delivery of a letter.

TO MY FRIEND.
(Communicated.)

Weep—it is meet to weep
For all the hopes that pestled in his eyes
Were shattered, when the sleep
We all must sleep, came with the springtime skies.

Death's seal is on his brow,
And silence where the heart beat once in pride;
Blend with the memory of him who died.

Mr. Editor—If I can prevail upon you to permit a few words from me so that many who share the same sorrow that I do, can, through my feeble efforts, give vent to their own thoughts I will feel grateful for the courtesy. Today, as in many days the past month, we have been called upon to bury from earthly view a friend—one true and tried, always in the forefront if his feeble efforts could be of benefit to the less fortunate. I dont know of a man whose loss in the prime of life ever appealed to the sympathetic chord of humanity than that of August Oehlert. Starting as a poor young man in a co-operative way his firm has reached a round in the ladder which places it as one of the safest and best business houses in our city. While all of the successes attendant upon the building up of the business could not be traced to him, yet his geniality and business sagacity went a long way toward making friends. But the great destroyer of life has seen fit to take that which he gave, and though surrounded with every luxury, though possessed of friends, counted as legion, though a welcome visitor in every place where pleasure was King, the great leveler called his name, and today he was placed in that bourne from which no traveler e'er returns. Loving and appreciative fellow citizen lowered his flower-beddecken coffin to earth, to molden in the dust, and like our friends who preceded him, he now is aware that this earth was not his abiding place. The sympathy of many is bestowed upon his wife and children in this hour of grief—as it surely is when the bread-winner is taken. He was my friend when I needed one—he helped me when I needed it, and I can not forget him now. Though his lips are sealed, though his familiar figure will be missing, his deeds of kindness for me and others will be an ever-flowing spring which will continue until eternity dawns. Death is winning many earthly victories now, but the departed are only away and will, we hope, clasp hands with loved ones gone before in the land where there is no death.

The car shall listen long
To catch one note of his familiar strain—
One murmur of his song—
And still its listening shall be in vain.

BOY RODE IN LOCKED CAR.

Fruit Was in Sight, But Not Within His Reach.

Cranford, N. J., April 2.—In a magistrate court here Benjamin Wickham, 14 years old, told of his experience of three days locked in a refrigerator car filled with fruit that he could see through a grating but could not reach.

The boy lived in New York, where his uncle, Charles Wickham, still resides, but a year ago his parents moved to Florida. He said he longed to be back in New York and had climbed into a refrigerator car in Jacksonville, Fla., and started north. The doors were locked and sealed upon him.

He tried to get to the fruit but found that it was locked in compartments, where it would be cooled by ice on the trip north. In that manner he starved and thirsted for the juicy fruit for three days, until the car was opened near here and he was found.

His uncle was notified and came and got the boy.

AVERT LYNCHING.

Charles Henry Carter is Taken to Newport News for Safe Keeping.

Newport News, Va. April 2.—Charles Henry Carter, the negro desperado, who shot and probably fastally wounded Edwin S. Curtis, chief deputy sheriff of Elizabeth City county, after being placed under arrest Sunday morning at "Sugar Hill," a negro settlement, was captured Tuesday night near Hampton and brought here for safekeeping. It was feared he would be lynched if allowed to remain in Hampton. A reward of $300 was offered for the apprehension of the murderous assailant.

Weak Lungs Often Lead to Serious Illness

If you have weak lungs, you are generally subject to colds or throat trouble and easily susceptible to serious Lung Trouble. In many cases pneumonia or bronchial troubles leave the lungs in a much weakened condition. Eckman's Alterative is a medicine for the throat and lungs which has been found to be very beneficial, even when a change of climate and other treatments failed to bring relief. Read of this case:—

231 S. Atlantic Ave., Haddonfield, N. J. "Gentlemen: In the fall of 1905 I contracted a very severe cold which settled on my lungs. At last I began to raise sputum, and my physician then told me I must go to California immediately. At this time I was advised to take Eckman's Alterative. I stayed at home and commenced taking it the last week in October. I began to improve, and the first week in January, 1906, I resumed my regular occupation, having gained 25 pounds, fully restored to health. It is now seven years since my recovery has been effected, and I cannot praise Eckman's Alterative too highly."

(Signed) W. M. TATEM.

Eckman's Alterative has been proved by many years test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

"Tuxedo, cool and mild, is essentially the smoke that satisfies. Many of my fellow golfers agree with me in giving preference to Tuxedo."

Tee Up! Smoke Up!

As satisfying as the sounding smack of the perfect drive, is the open-air relish of the perfect smoke—Tuxedo. Both go together, too. When you grab your bag and start for the links, grab up your tin of Tuxedo and take it along.

"Follow through" the snappy afternoon with Tuxedo. Put Tuxedo in your pipe and you will "put" the best. And at "the nineteenth hole" rest up and relax with a good, solid smoke of Tuxedo. That's the advice of good golfers everywhere.

Tuxedo
The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

It's worth your while to try Tuxedo. Especially if a sensitive tongue prevents pipe smoking.

Tuxedo positively cannot bite—not even if you smoke pipeful after pipeful, as many as you can crowd into a day or a week.

Tuxedo is made of only the finest, choicest, selected leaves of perfectly aged Burley tobacco. It is made by the original "Tuxedo Process" which removes every trace of bite and sting and develops all the wonderful mildness, fragrance and flavor of the Burley Leaf in a way that no other brand of tobacco has ever successfully imitated.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Nearly 50,000 Ohio bituminous coal miners were forced into definite idleness yesterday because of the failure of the recent Chicago conference between the operators and officials of the United Mine Workers of America to reach a new wage agreement to take the place of the one which expired last midnight.

The strike caused by the epidemic of a mysterious malady in factories in St. Petersburg, is spreading rapidly. Many factories are affected, and the number of workers who have quit through fear of contagion is now about 70,000. There were several demonstrations in the streets today, and the workers clashed with the police. One hundred rioters were arrested. Some were injured.

Accidentally dropped by his sister into a tub of scalding hot water, Joseph Webster, 26 months old, is dying at the Children's Hospital in Washington. The child's sister was caring for him while the mother was looking after the family washing, the police were told, and she accidentally dropped him from her arms into the tub that Mrs. Webster had just removed from the stove. Dr. Francis Ready, of Emergency Hospital, rushed to the house in an ambulance and gave first treatment. The child then was taken to Children's Hospital, where it was stated last night it's condition was critical.

Scores of men, women and children fled in terror from the 5-story tenement at 102 East 18th street New York, yesterday, when a bomb was exploded on the third story of the building against the door of the apartments occupied by Joseph Mule his wife and child. Mule is a lumber yard foreman and it is believed he had discharged some man who had placed the bomb in revenge.

Ella Hackett, a 9-year-old equestrienne, was killed almost instantly by a fall of 50 feet from a trapeze to an improvised platform in the arena at the Barnum & Bailey circus in Madison Square Garden, New York, yesterday. Ambitious to appear in a trapeze act, she was rehearsing after the afternoon performance. While attempting a "revolving swing," she fell head downward. Miss Hackett was a daughter of Dr. Clarence L. Hackett, a dentist, of New York.

An old wallet that was being kicked about York, Pa., and looked upon as an April fool joke was picked up by Thad S. Stroman, a detective and found to contain $1,000 in notes yesterday. The wallet proved to be the property of Wm. Hykes. He offered the finder a liberal reward, but Stroman refused to take any of the money.

Stanhope Wood Nixon, son of Lewis Nixon, of New York city, a prominent junior in the Sheffield Scientific School, at Yale, was arrested by detectives in New Haven, Conn., last night, charged with assaulting Edward M. Everett, chief engineer of the Southern New England Telephone Company, on October 22 last. Mr. Everett was waiting home late at night, when he was struck from behind with a club and rendered unconscious. It was thought the motive was robbery. On the night of the assault there was a student outbreak during which iron bolts were hurled through windows of homes of prominent residents living near the scene of the assault.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Ann Belle Emery, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from woman trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

STORY OF KIDNAPPING.

Banker's Daughter Returns Home With Tale of Being Abducted.

Ridgewood Park, N. J., April 2.—Jessie Wood, 15-year-old daughter of Percy L. Wood, a banker, thought to have been kidnapped, returned to her home at 7 o'clock last night.Her disappearance, however, is still a mystery.

Late last night one of the neighbors who visited the Wood house during the evening said the girl had told a strange story of kidnapping a night in a New York garage, and escape through the aid of a policeman.

"She said she was kidnapped by men in an automobile while walking along Hackensack road," he said, "and taken to New York where she was kept a prisoner in a garage all night. She escaped yesterday morning she said, and found a policeman who took her to the 42nd street ferry and bought her a ticket home. This story revived the report mentioned early in the day that an automobile going at top speed passed the toll gate over Overpeck Creek on Bergen turnppike about 9 o'clock Tuesday night. Before the gatekeeper could telephone to the second gate, a mile away, it had passed out of the "Block."

Little credence is placed in the girl's story by the police.

EXPLAINS ULSTER ORDER.

Asquith Finds Officers Whose Homes Were There Were To be Allowed To Withdraw.

London, April 2.—The first act of Premier Asquith in his new capacity as secretary of war was to clear up the mystery surrounding the instructions given by the War Office to Gen. Sir Arthur Paget, commander-in-chief in Ireland.

Sir Arthur was summoned to London to give his chief a personal account of the orders he had received and issued, and as a result of the conference Reginald McKenna, the home secretary, who is acting as leader of the House, was able to inform the Commons yesterday that:

"The only question General Paget put or intended to put to the commanding officers in Ireland was whether they were ready to put their duty before any other considerations. It was not his intention that this or any such question should be put by the general officers to their subordinates.

"General Paget informed the general officers of the promise given by the secretary of war to officers whose homes were in Ulster to permit them to withdraw temporarily from their regiments in the event of operations becoming necessary in Ulster and he requested the general officers to find out immediately numbers of officers who would withdraw on this account.

"The Irish commander-in-chief was asked if any officer who could not claim this exemption would be allowed to resign, and replied that the result of any refusal to do their duty could only mean their dismissal from the army."

MONKEY FACES GIRL IN BATH.

Flees When Simian Climbs Through Ship's Porthole.

New York, April 2.—Chasing a young woman passenger out of the bathtub and taking possession of the tub himself, putting the wireless apparatus out of commission for six hours, and a few other unpopular stunts were performed by an ungrateful monkey which arrived yesterday on board the liner Prinz Simismund from Central America.

The second mate of the ship picked up the monkey in Colombia, intending to make a pet out of him. When the ship got under way the monkey darted for the wireless room, climbed up and down the walls, scared the operator onto the deck and then proceeded to put the apparatus out of commission.

The crew failed to trap him because the monkey escaped through a ventilator, and found his way into a bathroom occupied by a young woman,who immediately fled. When the pursers broke into the bathroom they found the monkey lying lazily in the well-filled tub. He was made a prisoner for the rest of the trip.
